RUMANIANS IN IMMINENT PERIL

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 1.—Although satisfied that the Rumanian army is still absolutely intact, Major General F. J. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, told the Associated Press that any further advance by the Germans would mean a considerable success for them. General Maurice said: "There is no use minimizing the fact that the further advance of the Germans would mean a considerable success, as a step forward gives them the corn district, while a still further step means their possession of the oil fields. Russia is moving, however, and the fact that the Rumanian army is still intact is encouraging. "Even the German reports claim to have taken only 1,200 men and a few guns, which means that my prediction of last week, that no more than the rear guard would be captured, has been more than fulfilled."

TURKEYLESS THANKSGIVING WAS COMMON THROUGHOUT EAST

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The pinch of the high cost of turkey was felt in many homes and some public institutions in the observance of Thanksgiving here yesterday and resulted in the substitution of chickens, ducks, geese, corned beef and pork. Nevertheless, a greater effort than ever before was made to provide some kind of Thanksgiving dinner for the poor. Groans of disappointment greeted the announcement at a dinner given by the Salvation Army to 600 men that the organization all over the country had boycotted turkey and eggs. Soup, vegetables and pie were substituted. In most of the city institutions and hospitals, turkey was supplied to the inmates. Thousands of poor men were given turkey dinners by charitable organizations. Remembering the admonition of President Wilson to contribute funds to the relief of the people of the warring nations, collections were taken up in all of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches and those of many other denominations for the Red Cross or other relief organizations. Patriotism and the spirit of internationalism found expression in many Thanksgiving day sermons in the churches where special services were suggested. A federation of the world or United States were urged by some of the pastors, while others warned the people of America against "fattening on the world's needs."

EDDIE RICKENBACHER BECOMES
CHAMPION DRIVER OF AMERICA

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—Eddie Rickenbacher won the 150 miles "championship award sweepstakes" race on the one mile paved Ascot speedway, the final event in the American Automobile association's contest for $13,500 in prizes and the title of "champion driver of America." Rickenbacher's time was 2:13:15.2. Cooper ran out of gasoline half a mile from the finish, but coasted to the tape. Rickenbacher's average for his 150 turns around the mile track was 67.54 miles per hour. Cooper with 66.91 and Pullen with 66.64, pressed him close. Five of the twelve starters were forced out of the race by mechanical trouble, the remaining four being flagged when Pullen secured third place. Ruckstell, Monso, Vail and Toft finished as named.

(By Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Dec. 1.—Melvin Drennan, killed in an automobile race at Phoenix, Ariz., yesterday, was a son of R. H. Drennan of Oklahoma City, owner of a number of grain elevators in Oklahoma. Drennan was 22 years old and unmarried.

(The forces of Field Marshal von Mackensen are almost within shelling distance of the southern forts which protect Bucharest, the capital of Rumania. Driving along the railroad landing north from Giurgui, Von Mackensen has captured the town of Tseomana, 16 miles south of Bucharest and at last accounts was still making progress toward his objective. Meanwhile the army of General von Falkenhayn is keeping up its pressure against the Rumanians west and northwest of the capital, in the center having forced the Rumanians to fall back to Olavatziotzu, 37 miles from Bucharest, and farther north having captured the town of Campulung, thus opening the way for the unhindered advance of additional troops of the central powers through the Torsburg pass into Wallachia. The offensive begun by the Russians in the region of Kirlibaba apparently is not impeding to any extent the Teutonic invasions into Rumania. Additional gains are conceded to the Russians in this region, but against it is asserted that they have been dearly paid for in casualties. The Rumanians on the north and northwest fronts have made progress in the Bureu and Pralova valleys.

The navy proclamation probably has been put into effect without bloodshed. The drastic step has been considered here since the overthrow several months ago by President Jimenes by General Arles, a strongly anti-American revolutionist. With Arles in control, the dominican assembly elected Frederico Enriques president, but the United States refused to recognize the new government and withheld the balance of custom receipts left after the regular interest on the foreign debt. Consequently the native officials and employees will draw their first pay since the downfall of Jimenes, when, on December 25, the American officers began to disburse some $600,000 of accumulated export duties.
